

Privacy Policy

At Stone Mountain Enterprises, we understand the importance of privacy in the digital age and are firmly committed to protecting your personal information. This comprehensive privacy policy outlines the measures we take to safeguard your data and how we utilize it, all to enhance our service offering to you, our valued client.

Scope of Privacy Notice

This notice applies exclusively to information gathered through the Stone Mountain Enterprises website (stonemountainenterprises.com) and details our steadfast privacy practices.

Data Collection, Utilization, and Sharing

Ownership and Access

Stone Mountain Enterprises exclusively possesses the data collected on this site. We have access solely to information that you willingly share with us via email or direct interaction. Rest assured, your information will not be sold or leased.

Purpose of Data Gathering

Data collection will equip us to address your inquiries and serve you efficiently. Your information enables us to tailor our response precisely to your needs, whether to provide details about our services or for any assistance you request.

External Sharing

Your personal information remains confined within the bounds of our organization and will only be divulged to external parties when necessary to satisfy your requests, such as dispatching an order.

Future Correspondence

We may email you about new services, advancements, or alterations to this privacy statement.

Managing Your Personal Information

Your autonomy regarding your data is a priority for us. At any point, you can:

- Audit the data we hold about you.
- Modify or correct your information.

- Request the erasure of your data.
- Express concerns over our data usage.

Simply communicate with us using the contact details provided on our website.

Data Security

We implement stringent precautions to shield your data. When you submit sensitive details through our website, encryption, and security protocols activate to ensure its safety. Confirm this by noting a lock icon in the address bar and the presence of "https" at the web page's URL.

Cookies: Enhancing Your Website Experience

Stone Mountain Enterprises employs "cookies," small data files stored on your computer that facilitate smoother access to our site and recognize repeat visits. Cookies assist us in tracking user preferences to refine our website's functionality. Significantly, these cookies are decoupled from any personally identifiable information on our site.

External Websites

Our website may provide links to third-party sites. We caution our clients that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of other websites. We encourage a vigilant approach to reviewing the privacy statements of any website collecting personal information.

We at Stone Mountain Enterprises, a full-service communications and management consulting firm, pride ourselves on creating and maintaining trust with our clients through dedication to privacy, transparency, and exceptional service.

Additionally, we regularly review and update our privacy policy to ensure compliance with any regulations or changes in best practices. We will always strive to maintain the highest level of protection for your personal information and are committed to transparency about our data collection and usage practices.

We also highly recommend that you actively protect your personal information by regularly reviewing your privacy settings on social media and other online platforms, using secure passwords, and being cautious about sharing sensitive information online. Should you have any questions about this policy, please reach out to us for clarification.
